

SuperBook Sports for AZ, CO, IA, MD, NJ, OH, TN, and VA will follow steps according to the timeline provided below.

The NV SuperBook will continue to operate both online and at the retail location.

SuperBook Sports appreciates your patronage and patience during this process.

Important Dates

July 19th: Sports betting will cease. We will no longer accept new bets, new deposits, or new account registrations. Promotions will be turned off, and any active offers on your account will be canceled.

Starting the week of August 12th, customers with outstanding wagers will begin receiving information about how any they will be processed, based on the individual situation of the customer. Please be sure to check your junk or spam mail to ensure that you do not miss these communications.

If you have any outstanding wagers and do not see an email with information on these wagers by August 30th, please contact Customer Support at support@superbook.com.

Please have patience as SuperBook will experience higher than normal volume. SuperBook has been fortunate to have numerous loyal customers across 8 states and will be providing individualized communication to our loyal customers.

November 17th: Wagers for events prior to or on this date will go as written. (Your account will be credited for any wins on these tickets as the event ends). As soon as your wagers have settled, you may withdraw any winnings.

November 22nd: Final day to complete a withdrawal form for the purpose of receiving funds via ACH or Check by mail. Final day to complete a withdrawal within the SuperBook app or website. Final day to log into to the account and download any tax documents such as win/loss statements and W2Gs via self-serve.

We strongly recommend that you log into your account to withdraw any remaining funds. Any funds remaining in your account after the closing date may be subject to unclaimed property laws in the state where your account was created. Please ensure your contact information in our app is up to date and that any remaining funds are withdrawn in accordance with the timeline above.
